

Theatre workshop at Sinai beaches with Master Shula Revach

Get out of the city and find the natural breath-taking beauty and serenity the Sinai beaches have to offer.

“Rocksea” – An irresistible oasis in the Red-sea, Sinai. Golden sand-dunes caressing turquoise beaches, a real peaceful gateways. The perfect background for our intimate & Exciting THEATRE WORKSHOP

Come join us for a workshop that will grant you a lifetime tool for personal growth and a useful “Mental feeding station”.

Did you ever ask yourself what are truly your Desires and wishes? And what are those inner Barriers that prevent them from coming true?

Can you fully express your emotions? What is your body language? What is your “itch” What are your issues? What is your mask and do you really need it?

I invite you to come and answer these questions and receive tools to implement in your everyday life.

Who's in the group

Come surprise yourself, get out of your comfort zone! Interact and connect with fascinating people from a range of ages and professional backgrounds

What awaits you there?

Exciting experiences, touching moments, lots of joy, laughter and occasionally weeping...And most important many new insights.

The Instructor/trainer

Shula Revach- Actress, director, play writer, group facilitator, a graduate of the Bet -Tzvi Art School. Graduate of Tel Aviv University Schools of Psychology and Philosophy

The workshop will take place September 22-29, 2010

For further details:

shularevach@walla.co.il

<http://rocksea.net/cms/content/view/18/79/lang.en>

